We Dedicate

Mr. Tripp

The class of 1968 dedicates the Le Sabre to our friend and class guidance counselor, Mr. H. Frederick Tripp. We greatly appreciate the interest and help he has given to us this year. Through the sudden realization that our futures had to be planned for vocation and further education, we relied upon Mr. Tripp to guide us. Our sincere thanks go to you, Mr. Tripp. We have chosen divers paths, but we all will be backed with a remembrance of your help and friendship forever.

This Book To

Miss Reed

For four years, you have guided our efforts as a class. You have given us the opportunity to think, and to rely on ourselves. In the past years at Schalmont, the class of 1968 has worked to produce its Junior Prom, Senior Play, and Senior Ball, its many dances and class activities, all with your help. In leaving Schalmont, we realize that we have always been under your guidance and concern. For these, your guidance and help, we want to thank you, and wish to dedicate the 1968 Le Sabre to you.

I want to say thanks to everyone at Schalmont for giving me this chance to know the U.S. and the American people.

I made many friends and I enjoyed my studies here in the States.

I learned about different aspects of the American society, such as the traditional American ideals and the hippie thoughts, too.

For all this, that means to me a new, great experience. Thanks, very much.

Paula Gravatt

Last summer I was privileged to spend six weeks in France and Switzerland. With the Foreign Language League, I traveled first to Etampes, France, where I lived in a French "Lycee" or high school. My days were filled with classes in French, French culture, and French history, sightseeing trips to Paris, Chartres, and the Loire River Valley, and visits with many of the French people in Etampes. I had many chances to tell people about America, and I found that many French people are very friendly toward the United States.

After our stay in Etampes, our Foreign Language League group moved to Leysin, Switzerland, a picturesque village that lies on the side of a huge mountain and which overlooks Lake Geneva. The Swiss scenery was magnificent and each day I hiked into the valley below Leysin or to the top of the mountain. I enjoyed shopping in the city of Bern, attending a European circus, and especially eating Swiss milk chocolate.

The French take life seriously and yet they are able to relax and enjoy life. They are very proud of their country, as are the Swiss. The Swiss are extremely proud of their heritage of neutrality. They are violently opposed to the United States' role in the Vietnam War.

I wish to thank the adult chapter of A.F.S., the parents in our school districts, and especially the members of the Foreign Exchange Club for making my trip to Europe possible. I sincerely appreciate all of the time and effort that these people contributed to the raising of the necessary funds.

Class Will

The Class of 1968 being of sound mind and body hereby presents its last will and testament. Wherefore, this year 1968 is the year of our seniority and subsequent parting from Schalmont, we would care to leave these few tokens behind as a symbol of our gratitude . . .

Kathleen Anderson hereby leaves her job as club editor of the yearbook to any junior who wants a lot of hardwork and frustration. Janet Aldrich wills all the joys of being a Senior to her brother Doug. Nancy Ambler leaves her daily job of collecting the Senior attendance cards to Barbara Astemborski. Tom Bradshaw leaves his weight lifting ability to Steve Reese. Gail Burgess very kindly leaves her spot in the girl's room, 6th period, to Marianne Farina, with hopes that Marianne will be able to see better than Gail could. Rick Bell wills his attitude toward Miss Reed's class to anyone in the Junior Class. Vince Baccari leaves his Service Squad post to anyone in possession of a whip and chair. Regina Bacon wills to her sister, Joanne, her ability to stay in school and go to classes without fail. Joanna Bartow is the lucky recipient of Shirley Burdick's long hair, which was just cut off and was saved. Dick Bohenek leaves his can opener (genuine sterling silver) to Joe Lomonaco. Joey Batzell wills ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO ANYONE (he's taking it all with him). Pat Cimino wills the Senior Play's goat and all that it entails to Cliff Bradshaw. Janet Cagnina leaves the ability to go with a boy for two years and break up every day to Pat Fratus, although she already has that ability. Carol Cady wills her personalized seat in the senior lounge to Lorraine Bradshaw. Gail Denisoff wills one well-used Driver's Ed Manual to Valerie Wickstead. Corinne Della Villa wills her "unassigned" 7th period study hall to any junior who may find the need for it. Sandy DeMott leaves her place at the ends of lines because of her height to Debbie Rockwell. Linda Deschenes wills Hank and the car to Sharon Rybij (to be used when Bobby doesn't come home for the weekend). Nick Esposito quite willingly leaves the Curry Car Wash to Al Constantino. Gerard Fitzgibbons wills his Rambler and 18 quarts of Rotary oil to Skip Orologio. Gary Guyette wills his "indefinite" gym excuse, which seems to come about every year, to David Reynolds. Kent Gray leaves to Bill Ruoff the song "Bottle of Wine" so he can sing it in football practice. Diane Gray wills the right hand corner of the mirror in the girl's room upstairs to Pat Holub. Joanna Gaudio wills her D. E. class to Judy Longo so that she can get out at 10:00 every day also. Paula Gravatt leaves her memories of Paris to Audrey DeLella. Nancy Bloom is willed, by Bonnie Hunter, to receive one pair of tattered and torn, sentimental gym bloomers, with instructions never to sew them. Janet Hartwell and Ann Krawczak leave the ability to remain friends after sharing that "delightful little box" or, as called by school officials, a locker, two years in a row. Bob Hoyt wills his quiet manners to Mike Adams. Jim Knutti leaves his key to the projection booth and a reel of mangled film to anyone who wants to spend a period splicing it. Chris Keith wills her glass heels to Denise Ferguson. Kathy Keller leaves her big mouth to Lana Colasanti, and her boats to anyone who wants them. Paul LaMalfa wills his fourth period coffee break on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays to Dom Orologio. Art Kranick receives a complete set of memories of Mr. Volk from John Lontrato with his compliments. Sue Birnbaum wills her ballet slippers to Teddy Evendon. Don Reisinger wills his body to the entire female portion of the Junior Class. Go, Don!! Joann Morrette leaves her place on the sign-in sheet to Gail DellaPenta so it won't be left empty next year. Eduardo Martinez wills happiness, love and flowers to the Junior Class. Jim Morehouse wills his acting ability to whoever plays the Wizard in the Wizard of Oz. Pat Mulyca leaves her yellow truck to Gary Hagin to see if he can hit more cars with it than she can. Sheryl Martin wills her driving skills to Leah Pendergast. Doug MacKeown leaves Ed Martinez to Nina Lockwood. Joanna Mihal leaves all the broken audio-visual equipment to any girl who wants to take her place on the squad. Ann Piotrowski leaves two years of accumulated Am. History notes to her sister just in case she doesn't make it either. Sandy Pasquariella wills to Michele DeSorbo her seat behind the curtain at the diner so she can hide from the Driver Ed teacher again next year. Kathy Potthoff leaves her almost completed set of Presidential milk bottle tops (missing Chester A. Arthur and Rutherford B. Hayes) to Joey Testo and John Wineland with hopes . . . Gary Pechtel leaves his algebra review book to Gary Glindmire. Mark Wheeler leaves his job at Wetsons and all those delicious hamburgers and French Fries to Ray Jason. Scott Plant leaves 12Y grades to anyone who wants to fail. Steve Packard wills the Senior lounge to anyone who will take it. Marilyn Pikcilingis wills her two month plaster project to Mr. Blakely with hopes that he will destroy it. Fred Rychick wills one personally autographed picture of "Midnite Mary" to Ed Rozell so that he too can enjoy the finer things in life. Linda Pendt wills her ability to dance to Sue Guess and Pat Gignac. Ann Marie Rutkowski wills her enthusiasm for Gym class to Fran Gabriel. Robert Sheehan wills the soccer team cheerleaders of opposing soccer teams to Paul Butch. (They are quite helpful in protecting you during team rumbles.) Linda Sierocki leaves her proof of age to her sister, Joanne so she will stop bothering her and she can have a good time. Kathy Testo leaves with very few regrets. Sue Smith leaves her last name to JoAnn O'Brien and as a bonus sacrifice wills each lucky freckle a junior. Angie Savona wills her Italian temper along with her mutilated baton and old routines to Shelly Pardus. Chris Schmid wills a Harley Davidson to Doug Bantow. Dave Summers wills his position as timekeeper at the basketball games to Brian Collis in hopes that he makes fewer mistakes than Dave did. Bruce Maughan wills the privilege of signing the seniors out of second period study hall to some junior with a fast pen and an inability to spell. Cheryl Stiehl wills her long distance telephone calls and phone bills to Sue Gizzi. Colin Pohl leaves his sweaty gym clothes to whoever swiped them. Sandra Seales wills her control and patience in riding the pee wee for one more year to Sharon DiGesare. Barbara Wright and Sally Ringlee will their devasting beauty, poise, social grace and intelligence to the girls of the junior class. Dave Swetkowski leaves his ability to get cut off the basketball team to Al Spring. Joanne St. Andrews wills all the fun in gym class especially her square dancing place to Linda Mugits. Cheryl Tulloch wills all her application forms, letters, and NLN tests to Sandy Warner in hope that she goes where she wants to. Ricky Tompkins leaves the responsibility of keeping Randy in line to Tony Roman. Douglas Scott wills his ability to question everything to Larry Mudrey. Cathy Adair wills her ability to participate in gym class to Marilyn Primett. Janice Tuft wills a 67 Chevrolet convertible with a tube of Ultra-brite toothpaste in the glove compartment just in case, and also her three lockers to Susan Welsh. Barbara Farina wills her Economics-Gov't notes so that he may use them in Miss Reed's Class to John Ahles. Ken Bendt wills his dirty work shoes with the hole in the toe to Kathy Sammo. Peter Van Antwerp wills his luck with Miss Reed to Barbara Adair. Sharon Vogel will give a pint of blood to anyone who needs it. Mary Jean Masterpolo wills her long hair to Melanie Demeo so that she can give her wig a rest. Mary Jane Wallett wills her natural red hair to Laurel Moraski. Ronald Zyko leaves the end of the alphabet to Donna Zappia. Martha Coggeshall wills her boyfriend's best friend to Lois Bankowski. Doug Jones leaves a patch of rubber to the school parking lot. Candice Devey wills her ability to give Mr. Blakely Excedrin headaches and a box of sky hooks to Virginia Piotrowski. Shirley Wells leaves the Raleigh coupons she has left over after getting her diploma with them to Barb Wiklund to give her a head start on her own. Doris Ahl leaves her clean sweet smelling gym socks to Suzette Plant. Donna Aucampaugh wills her fall to Sandy Warner. Andrea Baan wills her fabulous driving techniques to Alan Burke. Good luck Alan. Donna Barbuto leaves 2 weeks of conveniently well timed illness to any junior with a boyfirend in the service. If Rick Bianchi ever finds his curve ball he'll will it to Mark Bonk. Tim Bradt wills Ron Brooks to Mr. Robusto. Bucky Cameron wills his chess board to Bob Matthews. Ralph Caprara left the basketball team. Dave Caruso leaves an unused ID Card to anyone diplomatic enough to use it. Roger Cobb wills his parking lot space to Gary Hagin. Rosemary Cornell leaves a free permanent to Scott McClenahan. Janet DeOrio leaves her imagination to Brad Henderson. Dave Emerson leaves Schalmont and the poor juniors will have to endure their senior year without his big smile, funny jokes and sassy attitude to help them bear the trials of their last year at Schalmont. Art Erschen leaves his speed warning signal (set at 110 mph) to Mr. Stopnynsky. Ray Favata wills his school spirit to Sandra Leschen. Mike Green wills his skill at backing into poles going forward to Rolly Van Antwerp. Colby Hansen wills his hand-tied flies to Kathy Sammo. Charles Hockins wills his uncanny ability to hide from Mr. Murray in free period to John Campbell. Arnold Horth wills his physics labs (which he copied) to Pat Paskevich. Harry Howard wills his cast to anyone who wants to fake a broken arm. Bob LeClair wills JoAnn Sierocki to any worthy opponent. Keith Marshall wills 5 gallons of used transmission fluid to anyone who wants it. Skippy Marx wills battered ski equipment to anyone who has money to rent it. Scott Wells wills the original Thomas A. Edison Light panel to Doug Johnson in hopes that he can figure it out. Melody Willey wills her superb secretarial skills to Debbie Rockwell. Dorothy Williamson wills her chauffer to Darlene Van Wormer. Rose Wnuk leaves her forged excuses to Nancy Kee. Richard Murtagh wills his growth hormones to Tom Lenhardt. Joan Reeds wills her excellent ear for languages to Cliff Barkley. Ron Rybij leaves Physics class to Mr. Dean. Bob Sabourin, the mouse, wills the Rotterdan Water Tower his signature. Lou Salerno wills his skill at getting along with Mr. Gallo to Art Kranick. Bill Smith wills a 1959 Pontiac to the school garage to be used for parts. Jim Sprung would will his membership card in the Club 11 but be there is no worthy junior. Tobi Tobiassen wills her position as Schalmont's sex symbol to Sharon Rybij. Ed Van Wormer who always buckles his seat belt takes it with him. Fred Van Wormer wills his green sweater to Peter Kehoe. Joyce Wagoner wills her critical analysis of Edgar Allan Poe to anyone who can stand him. Debra Waters wills her hard boiled egg for lunch to Linda Mugits. Lena Nardone wills her seat in Mr. O's homeroom, which certainly is a big sacrifice, to Christine Musella.

The Senior class would also like to leave: one bag of marbles and 3 yards of string to Mr. Dean to be used in Physics demonstrations, one year's supply of catfood for future lunches and lost text books to the administration, our thanks to Miss Reed for her help.

And the glorious halls of Schalmont for the future senior class to run riot in.

Amen.

The End...

And The Beginning

Graduation . . . and the end of twelve years of grade and high school . . . the beginning of a new era for you.

Many of you will be going on to college, to technical schools . . . while others will be going directly to jobs. Whichever your course may be, remember that your education doesn't stop when you finish school. You can keep on learning . . . by reading, by being constantly curious on your job, about everything you do, and finding answers to your questions. You can't stand still . . . for space-age America holds little for those who refuse to make progress.

The scientists of the future need trained workers to back them up . . . technicians who can build from their plans. In business, in communications . . . in arts and the professions . . . there's a future for those who keep learning . . . those who acquire more skills and more knowledge.

At General Electric, the future will demand trained personnel everywhere . . . to design the machines, to build them, and to operate them . . . to handle the vast amount of work to be done in new ways, with new products. General Electric is not alone in this . . . for every firm finds itself in need of men and women with ability and training, in every degree.

In the years ahead, miss no opportunity to add to your store of knowledge. Keep searching for facts, for theories . . . for the basic information you will need to help you grow in your chosen field. If you do learn, you'll fit into the pattern of the future . . . ready to accept the opportunities it holds for success.
